

EVENTS OF DAY IN WEST SCRANTON

NEW LOCATION FOR SUMNER AVENUE CHURCH.

Plot of Ground Secured in West Park on the Corner of Sumner Avenue and Schlager Boulevard—St. Paul's Tourist Club Entertainment and Social—Funeral of Fred Morris. Fire in Wymbs' Blacksmith Shop. Two Weddings and Other Current Topics.

A deal has been made whereby the members of the Sumner Avenue Presbyterian church will secure a plot of ground on the corner of Sumner Avenue and Schlager boulevard in West Park for the purpose of erecting a new church building in the near future.

The deed to the land has been presented to the church people by the real estate company, and the property on the corner of Sumner Avenue and Price street is now on the market.

Since Rev. Frank Milman assumed temporary charge of the work in that field, he has met with unanticipated success, and recently the congregation voted to extend his pastoral relations. It was expected that the present building could be moved to the new site, but owing to the fact that the structure is wider than the street the property cannot be moved without irreparable loss.

The Tourist club connected with St. Paul's Pioneer corps gave an entertainment and social in St. David's hall last evening, which was attended by several hundred young people.

Captain Peter E. McCoy presided over the entertainment, which included piano solos by Professor Rennie and Miss Mollie Jordan, harmonica solos by Fred Robinson, declamation by Daniel Leonard, and vocal solos by Myron Rittenhouse, Anna McCarthy, Beatrice Andrews, Rhoda Clark, Justin McCarthy, Martin Jordan and Loughlin McHugh.

Funeral of Fred Morris. Rev. E. A. Boyd, of the Plymouth Congregational church, and Rev. Frank Milman, of the Sumner Avenue Presbyterian church, officiated at the funeral of the late Fred Morris yesterday afternoon.

GATHERED IN SOUTH SCRANTON

ENJOYABLE CONCERT GIVEN BY MAENNERCHOR.

Conducted Last Night in Music Hall and Attended by a Very Large Audience—Songs to Be Sung at the Brooklyn Saengerfest Bandered with Splendid Effect—Nearly 800 Cords of Wood Belonging to the Lackawanna Iron and Steel Co. Destroyed by Fire—Other Notes.

Between 500 and 550 cords of wood, which the Lackawanna Iron and Steel company had stored on what is known as the cinder bank, near Nay Aug park, were consumed by fire yesterday. The wood was very dry, and it is supposed that the fire was caused by a spark from one of the steel mill engines hauling cinder.

The fire burned very fiercely, and a still alarm was turned in, to which the Century Hose company and Phoenix chemicals responded, but the Century could not reach the fire with their hose and the fire was extinguished.

The Maennerchor last night gave an exceedingly well rendered concert at Music hall, under the direction of Professor Gustav Schmidt. Bauer's full orchestra was in attendance, and after the concert a ball was given.

The entertainment was opened by the orchestra playing an overture, Victor Herbert's "The Amateur." The Maennerchor then rendered Spilster's "Im Lager der Bauern." A quartette, composed of Charles Berkhauser, James Gordon, Henry Lewert and Charles Schmitt, sang "America," and Miss Lydia Butler, in a fine soprano voice, sang Berghman's "The Flower Girl," scoring a distinct hit.

The Wilkes-Barre Liedertafel, guests of the local organization, gave several selections most acceptably, and Alfred Bauer, singing bass, and soprano, gave an excellent duo, singing Millard's "Beautiful Sea." Bauer's orchestra played another selection, and the Maennerchor gave Krommer's "Gruesse an die Heimat" with telling effect.

Miss Satter sang Wella's "Fruehlinglied," and the Wilkes-Barre guests again appeared, singing several songs, Wagner's "Under the Double Eagle," played by the orchestra, and Attenuer's "In Eiser Sturmnacht," by the Maennerchor, brought the concert to a close.

The songs sung last night were the ones which will be sung by the Maennerchor boys at the coming Brooklyn Saengerfest.

Famous Generals Recommend Peruna.

Of the great Generals of the Confederate army in the United States few remain. The most conspicuous figure among these is General James Longstreet, of Gainesville, Ga. His loyalty and courage in defending the lost cause of the South are well known to all.

As a survivor of that splendid chivalry peculiar to our Southern States, two generations ago, General Longstreet is one of the most unique men of this age.

He is a man of few words, but when he does speak his opinions are accepted by his fellow-countrymen with profound respect, if not reverence. In commenting upon Peruna, the old General made use of the following language:

"I join with my comrade, General Wheeler, in testifying to the merits of Peruna, both as a tonic and a cathartic remedy. Peruna enjoys the greatest reputation as a cathartic remedy of any medicine yet devised."

General Longstreet referred to General Wheeler in commenting upon Peruna. Wheeler was occasioned by a public statement of General Wheeler some time prior, in which he had praised Peruna as a cathartic remedy and tonic. General Wheeler's statement was as follows:

"I join with Senators Sullivan, Roach and McHenry in their good opinion of Peruna. It is recommended to me by those who have used it as an excellent tonic and peculiarly effective as a cure for catarrh of the bladder."

Almost everybody needs a tonic in the spring. Something to brace the nerves, invigorate the brain, and cleanse the blood. That Peruna will do this is beyond all question.

Every one who has tried it has had the same experience as Mrs. D. W. Timberlake, of Lynchburg, Va., who, in a recent letter, made use of the following words: "I always take a dose of Peruna after business hours, as it is a great thing for the nerves. There is no better spring tonic, and I have used about all of them."

The spring is the best time to treat exhausted nerves. Nature renews herself every spring. The system is rejuvenated by spring weather. This renders medicines more effective. A short course of Peruna, assisted by the generous contribution for a new flag which was raised yesterday afternoon with appropriate ceremonies at the singing, "America," and the marching out and taking of positions was done with military precision. After the formation was completed the flag was carried out by eight young ladies of Grammar A, who took position at the foot of the flag-staff and who at a given signal raised the flag.

The following programme was carried out: March and the singing, "America," singing, "Star Spangled Banner," raising flag by eight young ladies, Miss Nellie Bliss, Marie Rose, Edith Dunn, Yolande Killeam, Grace Patrick, Mabel Jayne, Bessie Prichard, Charlotte Schroeder, Ida Salter, singing, "O Columbia, Gem of the Ocean."

MINOOKA. Mrs. Grace Archer and daughter-in-law, of Jersey City, are visiting at the home of the former's sister, Miss Mary E. Jones, of West Minooka, who is a visitor in Wilkes-Barre yesterday.

The Marvin base ball club held a grand evening at St. Joseph's hall last evening which was well attended. Refreshments were served during the social by Caterer E. J. Campbell. The affair was a success.

Those who attend the entertainment at St. Joseph's hall this evening given by the children of No. 1 school will have an opportunity to witness something new in the line of a musical treat. The children, who are rehearsing the past few months, under the able direction of the teachers of the school, have their numerous parts well prepared and will make the affair one of pleasure. Miss Laura Eagan, the competent young pianist, has taught the children the singing features and it promises to be an evening of genuine musical feast. The following programme will be rendered:

OBITUARY. Mrs. Mary P. Lewis, of 265 North Hyde Park avenue, aged 62 years, widow of the late William H. Lewis, died at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon after a lingering illness. Deceased was born in Glimmerghore, South Wales, and came to America in 1850. She was a member of the Jackson Street Baptist church and is survived by her children and two brothers. The funeral will be held at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

Margaret, the 6-year-old child of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Evans, of 54 North Lincoln avenue, died yesterday afternoon. The funeral will be conducted at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

RECI TAL LAST NIGHT. Given by Miss Edith Swingle, Pupil of Haydn Evans.

A largely attended piano recital was given last night at Powell's music rooms by Miss Edith Swingle, pupil of Haydn Evans, assisted by W. A. Roberts. The programme was ambitious and classical to a degree.

Miss Swingle gave the Beethoven sonata, op. 31, No. 3, a selection which is more suited to her talent than Chopin. The Scherzo was especially well played and she has a certain delicacy of touch and poetry of temperament rarely fittingly brought out in the miniature. The Sternberg "Parentella" was best rendered of all.

Mr. Roberts, who has been heard but seldom in recitals, delighted everyone with his rich and flexible baritone. There is a buoyancy of tone, a certain freshness and brightness strongly fascinating. He sang "The Wanderer," and still more pleasingly the famous Oria of Osman, by Mozart. Mr. Roberts is the baritone in the Green Ridge Presbyterian church and is a pupil of Dr. Mason.

TWO BARN DESTROYED. They Were the Property of Mrs. Mary Donnelly.

Two barns belonging to Mrs. Mary Donnelly, and located in the rear of her residence in the 600 block of Birch street, were entirely consumed by fire about 1 o'clock this morning. One horse and several carriages were also burned. The damage done will amount to upwards of $1,500, covered by insurance. The cause of the fire is unknown.

Had it not been for the prompt and efficient service rendered by the Century Fire company, the loss would have been much greater. The fire was extinguished by the Century Fire company, which is a pupil of Dr. Mason.

"The teacher," said he, "need have only a sufficient amount of knowledge and a sufficient fixity of intellect to impart this knowledge. The educator must have not only these qualifications, but he must have primarily a moral nature so thoroughly strong that there is no about it. He must be as gentle, as calm and as soothing as a fragrant breeze, and as stern as a stormy wind."

Grand Opening. Schriever's Art Studio will be open to the public Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings. All welcome.

AN EXHIBITION OF TEACHING METHODS GIVEN BY CLASS IN THE TRAINING SCHOOL.

Exercises Were in Charge of Miss Emma G. Olmstead—Addresses Were Delivered by Superintendent Howell, Rev. D. J. MacGouldrick, Rev. I. J. Lansing, D. D., Rev. W. G. Simpson and School Controller A. B. Eynon—Pupils Who Participated in the Exercises.

The training school class yesterday afternoon gave a public exhibition of teaching before a number of persons interested in the work of education in this city. Miss Emma G. Olmstead, who is in charge of the school, presided. Several of the young ladies took five-minute periods and gave illustrations of the methods of teaching in vogue.

The first was Miss Craven, who illustrated the method of teaching land formation by means of modelling with earth. She was followed by Miss Burall, who showed the modern method of teaching fractions. Miss Murray also illustrated this work. Miss Padden gave an illustration of the methods of teaching language in the primary grades, and Miss Thayer gave a brief and interesting music lesson to a class of ten small children. Miss Shook continued the work taken up by Miss Craven and modelled the United States from the earth.

Joseph Murphy, the only male member of the class, at this part of the programme presented, on behalf of the class of 1900, a bust of Horace Mann, the first great American educator, to the school. The gift was accepted by Professor Grant, in the absence of Superintendent Joyce, of the school board. Professor Grant, of Horace Mann as being the first American to realize that the education of the young is a bounden duty of the state.

DUTIES OF A TEACHER. Superintendent Howell was next introduced and made a most eloquent address on the duties of a teacher. "The young man or young girl," said he, "who has not a deep and abiding love for children and who cannot watch with the keenest interest and delight the slow unfolding of the human mind will make a school keeper and not a school teacher."

Continuing, he said: "The greatest thing in the educational world is human sympathy. Let the heart speak in all the work you do. Be hopeful, be an optimist, not merely over the listless, heedless, inattentive scholars, but over all. Have a sublime faith in the onward march of civilization and in the upward tendency of all the people."

The superintendent urged against the relegating of the essentials to the rear and the putting forward of the non-essentials. Regarding order and discipline, he said: "Order and discipline are sometimes used as synonymous terms, but they are not such. They are very different. Order means prompt obedience to commands, whereas discipline makes commands unnecessary. Order is a monarchy, while discipline is a democracy and is far preferable."

He said that this year's class had done work that had never been surpassed and that their drawing was the best ever seen in the school. He expressed in conclusion the hope that the board might place for them all.

THE IDEAL EDUCATION. The next speaker was Rev. D. J. MacGouldrick, who gave a most scholarly address on "The Ideal Teacher and the Ideal Education." He differentiated between the teacher and the educator by referring to the one as being merely an imparter of knowledge and to the other as being one who touches every line of the pupil's character.

"The teacher," said he, "need have only a sufficient amount of knowledge and a sufficient fixity of intellect to impart this knowledge. The educator must have not only these qualifications, but he must have primarily a moral nature so thoroughly strong that there is no about it. He must be as gentle, as calm and as soothing as a fragrant breeze, and as stern as a stormy wind."

Somehow Damaged the New Residence of Frank L. Peck.

The beautiful residence for Frank L. Peck, which is being erected at Jefferson avenue and Olive street, has been considerably damaged during the last three days by the settling of the ground.

At that point the top vein of coal is only thirty feet below the surface and was mined some years ago. The weight of the building erected by Mr. Peck has caused the earth to settle somewhat and to make things secure pillars will be erected in the mine. They will make the surface entirely secure.

Grand Opening. Schriever's Art Studio will be open to the public Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings. All welcome.
